GENERAL

EXAM SYSTEM REVIEW - 29 JANUARY 2016 All Part 62 Grade A and Chief Flight Instructors Workshop - Amendments to Syllabuses, Standardisation of study material and online exams

Effective date: 04 January 2016

With the implementation of the New On-line Exam system during 2015 and number potential weaknesses in our educational processes were highlighted. To address these a Workshop is planned.

The aim of the Workshop is gain input and recommendations from Senior Members of our Industry for the improvement of our education system, with respect to:

1) Part 62 Syllabuses;

It has been noted that certain aspects of the syllabus may be irrelevant and others are too onerous for a student's training programme. Its it possible to have a syllabus format where the General Exam Subjects are all the same, eg: Met, Nav, HP, POF, ATG, Air Law.

- a) Recommendations for Additions to the Syllabuses
- b) Recommendations for the deletions of certain aspects of the syllabuses.

2) Standardization of Study Material;

During the On-line Exam review it was identified that numerous study aides are used and this varies from school to school. Is it possible to standardize the study materials for each Category?

- a) Recommendations for Standard Study Materials (Authors/Published Material) for Each Category.
- b) Recommendations for Standard Study Materials (Authors/Published Materials) for Instructor Ratings.

3) Amendment's of On-line Exams;

The new (current) on-line exams cover all aspects of the current syllabuses. Should some questions be removed, amended or others added?

- a) Recommendations for amendment's to each of the General Exams,
- b) Recommendations for amendment's to each Category Exam,
- c) Suggested questions for the Instructor Exams, Number of Questions and exam time.

Who are invited to Attend?

School CFI's, Grade A Instructors who hold valid ratings on : CCM, LSA, WCM, TMG and Soaring. (It is not necessary for an Instructor to hold a rating on all Categories.)

Anonymous and telephonic suggestions will not be considered. Finally, it is imperative that we have a good number of senior instructors attend the workshop. This will ensure our industry as a whole has been considered and that real workable suggestions are considered. Your support in attending this workshop is greatly appreciated.
